CONDITIONS OF TRADING

(A booking for a stall is taken as acceptance of these conditions.)

- Spaces are reserved on a first come first served basis and the Market Manager's decision is final.
- Traders are asked, in the interests of health and safety, to keep all steps and ramps clear for pedestrian access, and to pitch within allotted spaces. Any stalls bigger than their allotted space will risk not being allowed to trade. Please be sure that we have your correct dimensions before the day.
- Any electrical power, for any purpose, must be supplied by batteries only unless by prior arrangement with the Market Manager.
- Respect for existing businesses, public safety, the processions and the site workers determines positioning.
- Golowan reserves the right to re-position stalls if necessary or to close a stall in extreme cases.
- Golowan bears no responsibility for loss, theft or damage to traders' property.
- Insurance ELI/PLI is the responsibility of the trader.
- Parking of all vehicles must be 'off site' before the scheduled start of activities.
- Low-quality goods will not be accepted and we reserve the right to refuse applications on any grounds.
- Traders offering henna tattooing will not be accepted. No BB Guns. No Airhorns.
- Traders hiring trestle tables accept full liability for damage or loss.
- No refunds will be made in case of inclement weather.
- No additional bookings or cancellations accepted, or refunds made, after May 30 2008.
- Refunds for cancellation of booking before this date will result in a 10% administration charge.
- The stallholder must remove all rubbish from the site, after each day's trading.
